56. She encouraged education.
57. She worked for women empowerment.
58. She believed in a strong nation.
59. She faced opposition boldly.
60. She remained determined.
61. In 1975, she declared Emergency.
62. This period lasted until 1977.
63. It was a controversial decision.
64. Many people criticized it.
65. She lost the 1977 elections.
66. But she did not give up.
67. She worked hard to regain support.
68. She returned to power in 1980.
69. She again became Prime Minister.
70. She continued her work for India.
71. She faced challenges in Punjab.
72. There were issues of militancy.
73. She ordered Operation Blue Star in 1984.
74. It was a military action.
75. It created tension in the country.
76. She took tough decisions.
77. She remained committed to unity.
78. She believed in national integrity.
79. She worked till her last days.
80. She stayed strong always.
81. Indira Gandhi was hardworking.
82. She was disciplined.
83. She loved nature.

84. She cared for the environment.
85. She supported conservation.
86. She inspired many women.
87. She proved women can lead strongly.
88. She became a global figure.
89. She earned respect worldwide.
90. She left a strong legacy.
91. Indira Gandhi was assassinated on 31 October 1984.
92. She was killed by her own bodyguards.
93. Her death shocked the nation.
94. People mourned deeply.
95. She is remembered in history.
96. Her contributions are significant.
97. She shaped modern India.
98. She remains an important leader.
99. Her life teaches courage and leadership.
100. Indira Gandhi remains a symbol of strength and determination.

If you want, I can also make this into a speech, short notes, or exam-ready answer 👍